No. 8372—R. F. 210-92, dated the 15th December 1892.

It is hereby notified by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore that the exclusive privilege of selling date toddy in the various classes of farms specified in the subjoined schedule for fifteen months, namely, April, May and June 1893, and the twelve months of the official year beginning with 1st July 1893 and ending with 30th June 1894, willbe sold by the respective Deputy Commissioners or by Assistant Commissioners specially authorized by the Deputy Commissioners for the purpose, on the dates and at the places specified in the said schedule, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth. If the sales are not completed on those days, they will be continued on the next following days. Should there be no bids for any of the aforesaid farms singly, the officer conducting the sale, may revise the farms at discretion, clubbing together more than one farm or selling the farms by taluks.

2. The exclusive privilege above described will be put up to auction at the upset prices mentioned in the aforesaid schedule, and will be knocked down to the approved highest bidder above those prices, subject to the formal confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner who will be at liberty to accept or reject the bid at discretion. Such formal confirmation will be tantamount to an acceptance of the bid. Should there be no bid above the upset price, the officer conducting the sale, may lower the upset price at discretion.

3. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly authorized agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else until he has deposited Rs. 50 or such other reasonable amount as may be fixed by the officer conducting the sale. The deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders and not forfeited as hereinafter provided, will be returned at the close of the sale. The successful bidder must, on the exclusive privilege being knocked down to him, and before the next farm is put up for sale, deposit a sum equal to one-twentieth of the amount of his bid, and within fifteen days of the confirmation of the sale having been notified to him by the Deputy Commissioner in writing, he must deposit such further sum as, with the former deposit, will make up an aggregate sum equal to three months' rent, and if he fails to do so, the deposits already made will be forfeited, and the exclusive privilege will be immediately resold or otherwise disposed of as the Deputy Commissioner may direct.

4. Resales effected under para 3 will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder who will forfeit all gain, and in the event of a loss by the resale, will make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale. In the latter case, the forfeited deposit will be deducted from the loss arising from the resale ; and the remainder, if any, will be recovered from the bidder in the same manner as if it were an arrear of land revenue. Should, however, the forfeited deposit be greater than the loss by resale, the whole of such deposit will be credited to Government.

5. The purchaser of the exclusive privilege shall sign an agreement binding himself to observe the conditions hereinafter set forth, and the agreement shall be executed within ten days of the expiry of the period of fifteen days above mentioned. If the purchaser fails or refuses to sign the agreement, all deposits already made will be forfeited ; and the exclusive privilege will be resold at the risk and loss of the first purchaser as set forth in paras 3 and 4, or be otherwise disposed of. In the case of the purchaser's death after the confirmation of the sale, it will be binding on his heirs or assigns.

6. A statement of existing shops in each farm and the groves attached to each farm, will be shown to the intending bidders at the time of sale.

7. As soon as the agreement has been executed, the Deputy Commissioner will issue a license in the prescribed form, assigning to the purchaser the exclusive privilege referred to therein, subject to the following conditions :—

(1.) The exclusive privilege shall extend only to the sale of date toddy.

(2.) The amount for which the privilege has been purchased, shall be payable into the local Government Treasuries on printed chellans furnished for the purpose by Government, in equal monthly instalments commencing from April 1893, together with the local cess of one anna on every rupee of such instalment ; each instalment shall be regarded as the rent for the month in respect of which it is payable. Each month's rent together with local cess thereon shall be payable on the 15th of the month following.

(3.) The deposit of three months' rent made by the licensee will be taken in payment of the rents due for the last three months of the period of the farm. Failing payment of each monthly rent by the 15th of the next month, the Deputy Commissioner will recover the same under the rules in force for the recovery of land revenue, together with interest at 6 per cent per annum. No remission or abatement of the rent, shall, on any account whatever, be claimable by the licensee.

(4.) The toddy shall be sold to the public at the rates prescribed by Government.

(5.) The toddy shall be sold pure as drawn from trees, and shall not be adulterated or diluted in any manner in the shops, or depôts if any.

(6.) The licensee shall keep true accounts of the quantity of toddy received and issued to shopkeepers. The passes issued with the toddy transported, shall be subject to examination and check by the officers authorized on this behalf.

(7.) The toddy shall not be sold except in shops duly licensed by the Deputy Commissioner in the prescribed form, and no new shops shall be opened without the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner.

(8.) The Deputy Commissioner may, whenever he thinks fit, direct any shops to be closed, or permit transfers of shops from one place to another.

(9.) The licensee shall not, during the term of the license, have any interest in the exclusive privilege of vending arrack in any part of the farm to which the license relates, nor permit any person having interest in the exclusive privilege of vending arrack in any part of the farm, to hold any share or interest in his exclusive privilege of selling toddy; nor shall he, during the term of his license, without the written permission of the Excise Commissioner, have any interest direct or indirect, in any toddy farm in any Districts of the Madras or Bombay Presidency under the British Government or in any other Foreign State or Territory.

(10.) The licensee shall be bound by the provisions of the excise laws and rules in force or by any additional rules which may from time to time be prescribed under the excise laws. The licensee shall use such measures as may from time to time be prescribed by Government, and provide himself with permit books for the transport of toddy, which books may be purchased from local Excise officers.

(11.) This lease shall not be transferable except with the permission of Government.

(12.) The remaining terms and conditions shall be as set forth in the prescribed licenses.

8. In case of any breach of the aforesaid conditions or of the license either by the licensee, or with his connivance or privity by any person in his employment, it shall be competent to the Deputy Commissioner to impose upon the licensee a fine not exceeding the sum of Rs. 50 for every such breach of such conditions, or at the option of the Deputy Commissioner to declare the money deposited with him forfeited, and to cancel the license, and resell the exclusive privilege at the risk of the licensee or to place the farm under the management of Government; and all loss thereby caused should be made good by the licensee. When a lease is cancelled, the rent for the whole period of the lease shall become due at once. All the amounts of such penalties and loss shall be recovered in the same manner as if they were the arrears of land revenue.

9. The imposition of a fine or the forfeiture of deposit or the cancellation of the license under the last preceding condition, shall not be held to prevent the prosecution of the licensee or his agents or employés for any offence punishable under the excise laws or other enactments or rules for the time being in force.

By Order,
T. ANANDA ROW,
Chief Secretary.
